

Program 8

ANIMATION FILMS FROM AROUND THE WORLD

Sunday 21 January, 16.00-18.00

CaféTeatret

Caracas 9 min.

Direction: Anna Blaszczyk

Poland, 2006

Animation

A marine tale about the pursuit of a dream as an excuse for playing with various artistic forms. The script is based on Joseph Conrad's short story 'Youth'. winner of "Transfer Digital Lab", ReAnimacja Film Festival, Lodz, Poland, 2006

Fumi and the bad luck foot 7 min.

Director: David Chai

USA 2006

Animation

A heart warming tale of female empowerment and overcoming one's adversities; along with shotgun barrage, wild moose attack, and infant electrocution. Best animated short film at Silver Lake Festival 2006, and nominated at Sundance Film Festival.

Bek/ Beak 12'30 min.

Direction: Lucette Braune

Holland 2005

Animation

A girl is born with wings instead of arms and with a beak where a mouth should have been. She ends up in a circus, but longs to be a real woman. Winner of 3th. prize Animacor Festival, Spain 2005.

Agricultural Report 2'32 min.

Direction: Melina Sydney Padua

Ireland 2004

Animation

A cow listening to a radio programme about a new strain of a disease that could be dangerous to livestock, gets a bit concerned about the topic under discussion. Nominated for IFTA (Ireland) and Annie Award (USA) 2005 for best animation film.

Little house on a tree / Kucica U Krosnji/ 6'30min.

Direction: Darko Krec

Croatia 2005

Animation

With loyalty and friendship all trials can be overcome.

In the neighbourhood of the city / U susjedstvu grada

9'10 min
Direction: Joško Marušić
Croatia 2006
Animation

Love, passion, poetry, violence and survival struggle. Two young people who came out of the sea and who went back into the sea.

Primeiro movimento 6 min.

Direction: Érica Valle
Brasil 2006
Animation

A love story about a wooden leg man and a one wheel woman who cannot be together because of their differences of height. Jury prize at Mostra de Santo André (Brazil) 2006.

Little Things 11 min.

Direction: Daniel Greaves
UK 2004
Animation

It's the little things that frustrate us all. Everyday sketches of a dysfunctional world in which nothing quite works and everybody has their foibles. A cataclysmic event could shake things up, or are we just too set in our ways to change?. Nominated for BAFTA Film Award (USA) and winner of Cartoon d'or (Europe Cartoon Forum) i 2005.

The extacy of Gary Green 15 min

Instruktion: Jack Feldstein
Australia 2006
Animation

A funny neon re-animation about one guy's search for happiness. Premiered at Rotterdam International Film Festival 2006, Honourable Mention Melbourne International Animation Festival 2006.

Guide dog 5'41 min.

Direction: Bill Plympton
USA 2006
Narrative

This time the canine hero helps blind people, always with disastrous results. A sequel of short film Oscar nominee "Guard Dog". Best animation at Festival International du Film d'Animation, Annecy, France, 2006.

Journey to Mars / Viaje a marte 16 min.

Direction: Juan Pablo Zaramella
Argentina, 2004
Animation

Antônio loves science fiction tv-series. One day his grandfather takes him to a round trip to Mars. The film has won 40 prizes at several international festivals.